Author Meet & Greet

AUTHOR AND WRITING PROGRAMS

FINDING YOUR VOICE ▲

Painswick - Massie Family Room

Wednesday, Sept. 5, 6-8pm

An Amazon international bestselling author, Judy Penz Sheluk writes two mystery series, as well a short crime fiction. She is also on the Board of Directors at Crime Writers of Canada, representing Toronto and Southwestern Ontario.

HISTORICAL FICTION ▲

Painswick - Massie Family Room

Wednesday, Oct. 3, 6-8pm

History, legend and the art of storytelling with Barrie Doyle. You want your work to be enjoyed; more than that, believable. Easy enough if you're writing about modern times, but what if your story is set in the past? We'll look at techniques and tips for digging into the past to make your stories come alive. Where do you find out what food a medieval monk ate or what an Egyptian Pharaoh wore to bed, and how do you make it real to your readers? You never know what you'll learn when you delve into history.

WRITING AND SELF-PUBLISHING ON A SHOESTRING BUDGET ▲

Painswick - Massie Family Room

Wednesday, Nov. 7, 6-8pm

Amazon best-selling author, Annette Zoheret, will show you how to go from your initial idea to a published book that sells. You'll learn about: writing and editing tools, editorial services and resources, how to get your ISBN, how to format for e-book and print versions, book cover designs that sell, tax implications for a Canadian author receiving US royalties (W8-BEN form), receiving international royalties, and marketing.

AUTHOR MEET & GREET

Downtown - Flex Space

Saturdays, Oct. 6 - 27, 1-3pm

Meet published authors and learn about their work. Each week will have a different author panel. Authors attending are: Anita Arvast, Bianca Lakoseljac, Dave Ferguson, Eric Walberg, Jane Hamilton, Janet Goldblatt, Jennifer Witterick, JL Benson, Johanne Levesque, John Worsley Simpson, Kelly Baker, Peter Jennings, Tracy L. Ward, and Val Losell. Check our online Events Calendar for details.

NANOWRIMO WRITE-INS

Downtown - Flex Space

Wednesday, Nov. 7, 2-3pm

Saturday, Nov. 24, 2-4pm

Come and meet other Wrimos in a designated space. Get ideas, talk about your novels, run writing sprints, or just write. Commiserate with people going through the same noveling problems, brag about how well your novel is going, or just bring your materials and join the write-in!

MEMBERSHIP GUIDE

Getting a library card is easy, and can save you thousands of dollars a year. It allows you to borrow books, movies, and TV shows for free, access online courses and use our digital library.

GETTING A LIBRARY CARD

Residents of Barrie and Oro-Medonte can register for a free library card. Visit either branch and bring your current photo ID with name and address and one piece of proof of address. Non-residents who own property in Barrie or Oro-Medonte may also get a library card by showing a current property tax bill and identification.

Businesses and non-profits: Corporations, businesses & non-profits in Barrie and Oro-Medonte may request a corporate card that gives full access to all library services for business purposes.

Students: Georgian College students and faculty may get a library card by showing their Georgian Library card and student ID.

Visitors and tourists: Visitors and tourists may sign up for a 3-week library card while staying in a hotel or cottage in Barrie or Oro-Medonte. $20 refundable deposit required.

Buy a Membership: $75.00 for a one year membership; $25.00 for a one year student membership; $10.00 per card for each additional family member.

Resident cards are renewed every 2 years. Non-resident, Oro-Medonte residents, Midland residents, Corporate cards, Student cards, paid membership cards are renewed annually.

To learn more about how to get a library card, visit barrielibrary.ca.

BORROWING LIMITS

Borrow up to 35 items at a time per card, including up to 15 DVDs/Blu-Rays and 3 video games. Borrow up to 8 titles each month from Hoopla Digital.

Items can be returned to either branch regardless of where you borrowed them from. They can be returned 24/7 using the drop slots on the outside of both branches.

PLACING HOLDS

Bestsellers and popular items will often have a wait list to check the item out – you can place a hold on the item to secure your place in line. When it's your turn, you'll be notified that you can pick up your item from the Holds shelf at the branch you requested. Holds may be placed online through the catalogue or by asking a staff member.

RENEWING ITEMS

Renew items 24/7 through our automated phone renewal system or log in to your account at barrielibrary.ca. To renew by phone, call 705-728-1010 and choose Option 2.

Library material may be renewed with the following exceptions:

- You've already renewed the item three times
- Someone else has placed a hold on the item
- You have $10.00 or more in fines
- The item is a Grab & Go item
- The item is an Interlibrary Loan

TEXT AND EMAIL NOTIFICATIONS

Sign up for text or email alerts to be notified when your holds are ready for pickup or when an item is overdue. Email subscribers will also receive pre-overdue alerts, which are sent before your item's due date to remind you to return them on time.

To sign up, visit us in person, call 705-728-1010 or use the Ask a Librarian form at barrielibrary.ca.

LOAN PERIODS AND FINES

Loan periods, limits and fines depend on the type of item you're borrowing. Log in to your account at barrielibrary.ca to view what items you have borrowed, when they're due, and any fines you might have on your account.

There are no late fees or fines for eBooks or eAudiobooks. Loan periods for Interlibrary Loan items are determined by the lending library. See barrielibrary.ca for details.
